

PERMIT TO ENGAGE IN FISHERY OPERATIONS WITHIN THE SOUTHWESTERN ALASKA FISHERIES RESERVATION

Permit No. 51-1923.
Pioneer Canneries, Inc.
Snug Harbor, Chisik Island.

February 8, 1923.

- - - - -

A reservation designated as the Southwestern Alaska Fisheries Reservation having been created by the Executive Order of November 3, 1922, the Pioneer Canneries, Inc., whose home office is at Seattle, Washington, is hereby authorized to operate its plant for the canning of salmon and clams for commercial purposes at Snug Harbor, Chisik Island, within the Cook Inlet district of the said reservation, during the calendar year 1923, under the following conditions:

1. That Permit No. 49, issued December 20, 1922, to G. P. Halferty for clam canning operations, and Permit No. 54, issued December 20, 1922, to the Polar Fisheries Company for salmon and clam operations in the Cook Inlet district, are hereby canceled in accordance with the joint request of the said G. P. Halferty and Polar Fisheries Company who advise that they have effected a consolidation and will conduct operations under the name of the Pioneer Canneries, Inc.
2. That the permittee may operate four (4) salmon traps in all, on the eastern shore of Cook Inlet between Anchor Point and East Foreland; and two beach seines and three hundred fathoms of gill nets, but beach seines and gill nets are not to be used in Kamishak Bay. The traps driven shall be reported to the Bureau accompanied by a map or chart on which the sites are indicated, if such has not already been filed.
3. That the company may operate on clam beds between Harriet Point and Tuxedni Harbor, but the quantity of clams to be taken from the beach extending for a distance of two miles on each side of the mouth of Paulie Creek shall be limited to twenty-five thousand (25,000) cases, as was granted in the permit originally issued to the Polar Fisheries Company.
4. That the total pack shall not exceed fifteen thousand (15,000) cases of salmon of all species, and forty-five thousand (45,000) cases of clams, computed upon the basis of 48 one-pound cans per case.
5. That the company shall observe the existing laws and regulations for the protection of the fisheries of Alaska and for the administration of the said reservation (copies of which are attached hereto and the conditions of which are made a part of this permit), as well as those that may hereafter be enacted or promulgated for such purposes.

6. That this permit expires December 31, 1923, is not transferable, and is revocable at any time at the pleasure of the Secretary of Commerce.
